We regret to find an esteemed colleague in such hard-up circumstances that he receives his surcharged boom with an lowing brist but patient spirit issued a new book "The Editor's Pains" If the story is at all in keeping with its subject, we can reach for the consensus of critical opinion being that there is nothing in it. There is something interesting in the words "we can reach for it."

We're fairly clear down reading day after day in the papers the monotonous heading "al mal servicio de los ferrocarriles," of the line, services and not. Many people say for the good and gone times when the Northern, Western and Southern were the country's only lines, and portered along in a cheery, Cannon-Street-Hotel-kind of way, the daily heart-burnings of the present hellera-mutator day being unknown. "Tempora mutantur." And now the pity-at least for railway people.

(Continued from the 1st Page.) The unfortunate Rosario Exhibition is indulging up a most comical way. Hundreds of those favoured with prizes are sending them back to the Committee accompanied by letters of the most violently uncompromising kind. This laughable exhibition of a Show is probably unprecedented; though it is like a dream to us that there were some few cases of the same.	J. de BOER.  There was some news from Mendoza at yesterday, the wires being again in working order. Things are not quiet tically in the Earthquake City, and in camp rows, riots and ructions between containing factions of the 12th and 21st battalions of the 12th and 21st regiments, but it is said that the revolutionaries are now well disposed to find them obedient orders. 414 430
